

Fixed Assets Year-End Procedures

The ACS Fixed Assets module is a management system you can use to track valuable items and equipment.

In Fixed Assets, you can create lists of specific items in your inventory. You can record an asset's important information such as acquisition date, cost, maintenance, and useful life. You can then depreciate those items and print reports about your assets.