

Attributes

For an explanation of the difference between a channel page and a content page, see Content Areas.

Channel Page Display Options

The Channel Page Display Options let you select what will display on your Web site's channel page. The following table explains the options available for selection.

Option Name	Function
Heading	Select this option to display the Heading on the Channel page. Clear this option to not display the Heading on the Channel Page.
Title	Select this option to display the Title on the Channel page. Clear this option to not display the Title on the Channel Page.
Mini Abstract	Select this option to display the Mini Abstract on the Channel page. Clear this option to not display the Mini Abstract on the Channel Page.
Image	Select this option to display the Image on the Channel page. Clear this option to not display the Image on the Channel Page.
Caption	Select this option to display the Caption of the Image on the Channel page. Clear this option to not display the Caption of the Image on the Channel Page.
Author	Select this option to display the Author's name on the Channel page. Clear this option to not display the Author's name on the Channel Page.
Source	Select this option to display the Source on the Channel page. Clear this option to not display the Source on the Channel Page. The Source will only display when the Body or the Full Abstract is displayed.
Links	Select this option to display Links on the Channel page. Clear this option to not display the Links on the Channel Page.
Full Abstract	Select this option to display the Full Abstract on the Channel page. Clear this option to not display the Full Abstract on the Channel Page.
Body	Select this option to display the Body on the Channel page. Clear this option to not display the Body on the Channel Page.
None	Select this option to display the nothing on the Channel page.

Content Page Display Options

The Content Page Display Options let you select what will display on your Web site's content page. The following table explains the options available for selection.

Option Name	Function
Heading	Select this option to display the Heading on the Content page. Clear this option to not display the Heading on the Content Page.
Title	Select this option to display the Title on the Content page. Clear this option to not display the Title on the Content Page.
Mini Abstract	Select this option to display the Mini Abstract on the Content page. Clear this option to not display the Mini Abstract on the Content Page.
Image	Select this option to display the Image on the Content page. Clear this option to not display the Image on the Content Page.
Caption	Select this option to display the Caption of the Image on the Content page. Clear this option to not display the Caption of the Image on the Content Page.
Author	Select this option to display the Author's name on the Content page. Clear this option to not display the Author's name on the Content Page.
Source	Select this option to display the Source on the Content page. Clear this option to not display the Source on the Content Page. The Source will only display when the Body or the Full Abstract is displayed.
Links	Select this option to display Links on the Content page. Clear this option to not display the Links on the Content Page.
Body	Select this option to display the Body on the Content page. Clear this option to not display the Body on the Content Page.

Banner

The Banner tab lets you select the color of the text and background displayed in the banner on your Web site. The banner is automatically linked to the article listed in the content area where the banner text exists. The following table explains the options available for selection.

Option Name	Function
Text Color	Enter the text color, either a hexadecimal color value or click Color  to select the color from a menu.
Background Color	Enter the background color, either a hexadecimal color value or click Color  to select the color from a menu.
Text Alignment	From the drop-down list, select the alignment for the text. Your options are Left , Right , and Center .

Styling

The Styling tab lets you select various options for the border and background color of your Web site. The following table lists the options available for selection.

Option Name	Function
Horizontal Border	Select the properties you want for the horizontal border in this section.
Width	Select the width of the horizontal border from the drop-down list.
Style	Select the style of the horizontal border from the drop-down list.
Color	Enter the horizontal line color, either a hexadecimal color value or click the Color  to select the color from a menu.
Background Color	Enter the background color, either a hexadecimal color value or click the Color  to select the color from a menu.

Image Layout

The Image Layout tab lets you select how you want your images displayed on the Channel and Content pages.

Channel Page Image Layout

The Channel Page Image Layout lets you select how images will display on your Web site's channel page. The following table lists the options available for selection.

Option Name	Function
Image Size	Select the image size from the drop-down list.
Image Alignment	Select the alignment for images from the drop-down list.
Wrap Text	Select this option to have text wrap around the image.

Content Page Image Layout

The Content Page Image Layout lets you select how images will display on your Web site's content page. The following table lists explains the options available for selection.

Option Name	Function
Image Size	Select the image size from the drop-down list.
Image Alignment	Select the alignment for images from the drop-down list.