

Working with Accounts Receivable Payments

In Enter/Post Payments, you can add and edit payments. You can also view payment details, print receipts, or void or delete payments if you need to.

If you routinely receive payments, such as scholarship money or financial aid, you can use Mass Payment Codes to generate them. You can also import payments from third-party vendors, and you can use the payment filter to search for a specific payment.